The fascinating story of those drops that live in our eyes. Do you know that without tears we would see worse? That we would surely live part of the day with our eyes closed? Crying has turned us into the human beings that we are today, because tears have helped us to keep our eyes open to look at the world. With them, we communicate at birth, and also with them, we say goodbye to our beloved ones. Tears have taught us to read the faces of the others and also to feel our own, because it remains hidden to us like the hidden face of the moon.

THE EXCEPTIONAL JOURNEYS
OF 25 FEMALE EXPLORERS

Cristina Pujol
Rena Ortega

Hardcover / 60 pp / 22 x 30 cm
6 years and older
Rights sold: Italian, Japanese

When someone met Junko Tabei, always looked at her with perplexity. Her size was really small. How could she be the first woman to reach the summit of Mount Everest? She laughed about that confusion. Junko explained that her size or her climbing technique were not the things that took her to the summit, but her determination, and that rises from the heart.

Rediscover the incredible travels of 25 female explorers, some of them forgotten. Following her steps, we can learn how they overcame their fears to climb the highest mountains, to swing the world by feet or by bike, to travel through space, to fly between continents, to cross deserts, or to dive into the greater depths of the sea... All of them discovered an important lesson: that the journey is the destination.
